

Autumn Series

STEAM & MINING PRECINCT

We recommend going between 3pm - 5pm

A few years have passed and the easy to find gold is becoming more scarce so the mines are journeying deeper and darker underground. Discover how life became easier for Ballarat residents with the arrival of new technology.

SPEEDWELL STREET PRECINCT

We recommend going between 2pm - 3pm

Domestic life flourishing in Speedwell Street. Explore the different living conditions of the residents of the township. Take the time to wander the gardens, discover the kitchens and decide whether you and your family would be comfortable with 1850s life.

THE DIGGINGS

We recommend going between 10am - 12pm

The start of the day is always a bustling time on the diggings. Miners are waking up ready to start their day's work. New arrivals are trying to find their bearings in a strange land. Is today the day you could find your fortune?

MAIN STREET PRECINCT

We recommend going between 12 - 2pm

Experience life as Ballarat expanded. Gold wasn't the only way to find your fortune. Perhaps becoming a shop keeper would be a better fit for you? Head up to Main Street to experience the establishment of life in Ballarat.

DIGITAL TOURS

Hidden Histories - The Wadawurrung people

A digital tour that brings to life the perspectives and participation of Aboriginal people on the Ballarat goldfields from 1851-1871. sovereignhillhiddenhistories.com.au

We acknowledge the traditional Aboriginal custodians of the land upon which Sovereign Hill and Narmbool sit, the Wadawurrung, and their ongoing connection to this land and pay respect to their culture and their Elders past, present and future.
