

THURSDAY 2 SEPTEMBER 2021

In line with the continuing restrictions announced by the Victorian Government, the not-for-profit Sovereign Hill Museums Association remains temporarily closed until further notice. The ongoing closure includes the Outdoor Museum, Sovereign Hill Hotel and Narmbool.

Sovereign Hill will cancel all regional bookings until Sunday 12 September and all metropolitan bookings until Thursday 23 September. Refunds will be automatically issued to all bookings. Refunds will be received in the next 7 business days. You do not need to contact Sovereign Hill to receive your refund.

Any future bookings for regional Victorians past the date of Sunday 12 September will remain and be notified if there is an extension to lockdown restrictions. Any future bookings for Metropolitan Melbourne past the date of Thursday 23 September will remain and be notified if there is an extension to lockdown restrictions

The museum is taking these steps in line with government requirements as part of the current state-wide response to contain the spread of coronavirus.

Regular updates will be provided through Sovereign Hill's website and social media channels.

Extensions will be automatically applied to Annual Passes.
