

MEDIA RELEASE

SOVEREIGN HILL TO RE-OPEN TO THE PUBLIC ON SATURDAY 20 FEBRUARY

Wednesday 17 February 2021

Following the Victorian Government announcement of the easing of the five-day snap lock down, the not-for-profit Sovereign Hill Outdoor Museum, Sovereign Hill Hotel and Narmbool will re-open to the public at 10am Saturday 20 February.

Adult tickets will be available at $39, children's tickets at $20 and a family of four, five or six at $99. Tickets must be pre-purchased online and are available for sale.

To ensure Sovereign Hill is safe and secure, sanitisation stations and clear physical distancing signage will be active throughout the site. Please be ready to make on-site payments using a contactless bank card rather than cash where possible.

In line with Victorian guidelines staff, volunteers and visitors will be wearing masks indoors and when unable to physically distance.

Regular updates will be provided through Sovereign Hill's website and social media channels.

Sovereign Hill is a not-for-profit living museum.
