

THURSDAY 10 JUNE

The not-for-profit Sovereign Hill Museums Association is excited to re-open the Outdoor Museum to visitors from regional Victoria at 10am on Saturday 12 June.

The Outdoor Museum will remain open over the Queen's birthday long weekend including Saturday 12, Sunday 13 and Monday 14 June. The Outdoor Museum will re-open again for seven-day-a-week trading on the following weekend on Saturday 19 June.

Narmbool and AURA will remain closed to the public until Saturday 19 June.

Sovereign Hill will cancel all Melbourne bookings, including AURA, until Friday 18 June as well as all regional bookings between Tuesday 15 and Friday 18 June.

Refunds will be automatically issued and will be received in the next 7 business days. Extensions will be automatically applied to Annual Passes. Visitors do not need to contact Sovereign Hill in order to receive refunds or extensions. Any future bookings on, or past Saturday 19 June will remain, and ticket holders will be notified if there is an extension to restrictions.

The museum is taking these steps in line with government requirements as part of the Victorian response to contain the spread of coronavirus and is closely monitoring developments. Regular updates will be provided through Sovereign Hill's website and social media channels.

We look forward to welcoming visitors safely back to the museum.

Winter Wonderlights will commence as planned on Friday June 25. Winter Wonderlights tickets can be purchased at: winterwonderlights.com.au
